DON'T FORGET TO REGISTER FOR THE REUNION

The responses for the 150th Anniversary Reunion have been terrific. All individuals on our mailing list have received an invitation to the reunion, but don't neglect to inform your children and close family members. Unfortunately, not everyone is on the mailing list. In addition to the mailing of the brochure, the reunion has been advertised in Nexus, the Newsletter of the New England Historic & Genealogical Society, and has also been noted in the Newsletter of the Connecticut Society of Genealogists. Within two weeks of the mailing of the invitational brochure, approximately 150 people have registered, with more reservations coming in on a daily basis. Based on registrations to date, we have a good cross section of attendees from all branches of the family. Some guests are coming from Florida, Ohio, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Virginia, and Pennsylvania. While the brochure asked for a response by May 15th, don't despair if you have not yet registered - we simply wanted to get an idea of how many people would be attending to see if we should hold the reunion at Cave Hill. Currently, we have enough people registered to rent the facility. We will accept registrations up to the day of the reunion, since we would like to have as many people there as possible. Please help us by sending in your registrations as soon as possible. The reunion committee has a lot of work to do before the reunion, and their planning will be much easier with a good estimate of the number of people attending. Come join the fun at Cave Hill resort in Moodus, CT on June 29, 1997 - Send in your reservation today!

REMINDER: Cave Hill opens at 10:00 am, for those who would like to come early and sit by the pool. Coffee and donuts will be available in the morning.

MEMORIAL MASS

On the morning of the reunion, there will be a memorial mass conducted at St. John's Church for the deceased members of the family at 10:00 a.m. Those individuals wishing to attend the mass should meet outside the church between 9:30 and 9:45.

St. John's Church was an important part of the lives of our early family members. Prior to the construction of St. John's, there was no Catholic Church in the Middletown/Portland Area. Mass was held at the homes of the small congregation of Catholics, and, when weather permitted, under the branches of a large oak tree. The current building which houses St. John's Congregation was built in stages. The owners of the Portland quarries donated all of the stone necessary for the church's construction, and the Irish immigrant laborers who worked in the quarries by day built St. John's Church by night. In order to finance the purchase of the land and architectural services, plots in the cemetery directly behind the church were sold for $20. Among the family members who purchased cemetery lots to help finance the building of the church include Edward and Esther (Lalor) Greene, Joseph and Elizabeth (Greene) Conroy, John and Margaret (Rohan) Dunn, and Patrick and Mary (Dunn) Greene. To find out more about St. John's Church and the early Irish settlers in Middletown & Portland, order a copy of The Descendants of Edward and Esther (Lalor) Greene of Stradbally Parish, Queens County, Ireland and Middletown, CT.

"Relatively Speaking"

In the "Name our Newsletter" Contest, we had two close suggestions for the name of this publication. "Relatively Speaking", submitted by Shirley Dunn, was the runner up in the contest. As a result, in future newsletters, we have decided to name this column, which identifies relatives in the news, "Relatively Speaking."

Julia Kenney Hall was named "IRISH MAYOR OF WOLCOTT" over St. Patrick's Day weekend this year. Julia took over the Wolcott Town Hall on Friday Morning, March 15, and attended social events throughout the weekend. Last year, Julia celebrated her 90th Birthday, and she says she is looking forward to attending the 150th Reunion Picnic this year.

Neil Scully (a grandson of our Treasurer, Jack Scully) was the subject of an article in the Cheshire Herald recently. Neil, a 15 year old Cheshire High School Sophomore, also runs a successful computer consulting business, and has already established a reliable reputation with his six steady clients. Neil has a presence on the Internet, which can be accessed at <http://www.connix.com/~scully>. Congratulations to our family's young technology entrepreneur.

Brittany Bordonaro, age 11 (granddaughter of Janice Lucey Johnson) won first place for her poster on freedom as part of the Law Day events which took place on Thursday, May 1, 1997 in Portland, CT. A photo of Brittany and her poster appeared in The Middletown Press.

Rick Mickens, Central Connecticut State University's Central Forward basketball team member (and Jack Scully's grandson), was quoted in a recent article in the Middletown Press. Central's basketball team has contracted to play all of the division 1 teams recently. According to Rick, "I think it's going to be exciting. We only had one game against a Division I opponent in the State, Fairfield, and I think it's good for bragging rights, and it will build up 'basketball outside of UConn'"

Walter Clohosey has been researching land title records in Middletown to pinpoint the location of Edward and Esther Greene's house. Walter's contributions will be reflected in future publications and articles covering the history of the Scully-Greene-Dunn Families.

THANK YOU!

To All Those Who Contributed Information Over the Past Few Months:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for sending in corrections, updates, and additions to the family information over the past few months. With the print deadline for the book on the horizon and with the reunion plans which had to be made, there has not been much time to respond individually to the recent submissions. All of the information submitted has, however, been incorporated into the family databases. While The Descendants of Edward and Esther (Lalor) Greene has gone to print, we are still interested in receiving any further updates and corrections you may have. In addition, if you have any stories, photographs, or papers which might be relevant to the family history, please send copies to us. We would like to have this information for incorporation into future publications and newsletters.

To everyone who has helped with this project by submitting and correcting information, thank you for your efforts. I look forward to working with you in the future, and meeting you at the reunion in June.

Business Sponsors Sought

The Reunion Committee would like to print a program for the reunion, which will include an agenda for the days events, information on a self-guided family history tour of the Middletown/Portland areas, and information on the Family Association. In order to fund the printing of the reunion program, we are seeking the help of family members. As a means of recognizing those family members and businesses who contribute, an advertising section will be included in the brochure, which can include information on your business or a personal message, if you desire. For a donation of $50, a business -card size advertisement will be included in the program. Contributions of $75 will be recognized with a half page, and those contributing $100 will have a full page for a business advertisement or personal message. For family members who have businesses - don't forget that your advertising expenses may be tax deductible. Anyone interested in becoming a sponsor for the reunion program should contact Jack Scully, Treasurer of the Family Association, at 53 Whiteside Street, Newington, CT 06111, or Thomas Langdon at 860-621-0695.
